

LECC ETHICAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

21st Annual Crime in Arizona Conference (May 2006) Requirements For Awards Submission

Note: The LECC Executive Committee can present MORE than one of these awards, depending on the quality of the nominations. The nomination can be for an individual.

LECC Mission Statement: “The Law Enforcement Coordinating Committee was established as the point of contact to foster a comprehensive cooperative atmosphere among all law enforcement agencies within the State of Arizona, to aid these agencies in the delivery of the most effective law enforcement services to all persons in the State of Arizona.”

LECC Ethics Subcommittee Purpose: The Ethics Subcommittee of LECC was established to reinforce the ethical standards and values of each profession within Arizona’s criminal justice community. This is accomplished by finding effective ways in which to educate new and existing criminal justice leaders on the ethical expectations of their job. Additionally, the subcommittee will seek out individuals who have been instrumental in creating an ethical culture at their place of work through their leadership and personal integrity. These individuals and their organizations will be showcased to the rest of the criminal justice community and to the public they serve.

AWARD CRITERIA: The LECC Ethical Leadership Award honors an individual who best exemplifies the highest ideals of the criminal justice profession. This award recognizes those individuals who have consistently demonstrated exceptionally high ethical standards in all that they do. Additionally, and more importantly, this award recognizes men and women who have been instrumental in significantly improving the ethical culture in their organization, or who have performed singular acts that demonstrated extraordinary courage in adhering to their profession’s values and ethical standards.

The nominee should be an employee of an tribal, local, county, state, or federal agency.
